

EU COMMUNITY STABILISATION PROGRAMME II (EU-CSP II)

What EU-CSP II is doing:

- Provides support for the start up of new and expansion of existing micro enterprises for economic and rural development.
- Makes available technical assistance and trainings to selected entrepreneurs to enhance their operational capacities for managing sustainable businesses.
- Offers an opportunity to communities to improve living conditions by supporting public initiatives for wider benefit.
- Encourages the growth of market linkages between new businesses and existing enterprises.
- Supports innovative economically viable businesses.

The EU-CSP II programme supports:

- Resident of any of the targeted minority communities.
- Members of returning minority communities
- Projects with viable and sustainable business plan according to programme criteria and prior assessment.
- Relevant previous experience in the area of proposed business activity.
- Willingness to work and develop.

Factors considered for EU-CSP II assistance:

- Employment creation.
- Expands existing business.
- Addresses needs and priorities in minority communities.
- To promote and ensure reintegration of returnees.
- Beneficiary's own contribution to the project.
